POSITION OVERVIEW

Erin Mills SC is currently seeking volunteer coaches for the Recreational program. We offer three different seasons: Fall Indoor season (September-December), Winter Indoor season (January-April) and Summer Outdoor season (May-August). We are looking positive and motivating people that will help share their passion and knowledge of the game to our players and positively impact our community. With support, direction and educational materials from EMSC, our volunteer coaches are tasked with helping to create the best possible recreational soccer experience in our community.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES & DUTIES

- Contact players on a weekly basis to let them know the game times and locations as well as practice information
- Notify their teams of important information from EMSC, such as cancelled/rescheduled games and tournaments
- Notify players and parents when you are unable to attend and arrange a parent replacement for that game
- Wear EMSC gear provided at the beginning of the season to all games
- Arrive ahead of the scheduled game time and assist with any field setup (depending on age group)
- Be committed to coaching weekly games
- Ensure players are wearing their EMSC provided uniforms along with proper footwear and shinpads
- Facilitate substitutions or position changes for team, ensuring equal playing time for all participants
- Provide ongoing support and feedback to players in a positive manner
- Educate participants on different positions, playing formations, etc.
- Adhere to the Laws of the Game specified by EMSC
- Show respect to all involved including match officials, opposition players and coaches, spectators and EMSC staff
- Inform EMSC staff of any injuries and fill out the appropriate injury form
- Assist Recreational Coordinator with team balancing by completing player ratings (for ages U12+)

SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience working or playing within a sporting environment (preferred)
- Standard First Aid and CPR (preferred)
- Mandatory Police Check (18+)
- Speak positively and act in accordance with the Core Values as a representative of Erin Mills Soccer Club
- Knowledge and passion for the sport of soccer
- Experience working with children

Hours

- 1-2 hours per week (depending on age group)
- Games are during the evenings and weekends
